Developing Fiscal Policies to Drive Artificial Intelligence in Brazil

DESCRIPTION OF THE
INSTITUTION/LINE
OF RESEARCH

The Public Policy department at the Graduate School of Public Policy and Government at Fundação Getulio Vargas has a crucial mission: to collaborate in crafting public policies that address the urgent needs of citizens, fostering organizational progress, and advancing the nation. Within this context, our research project stands out, as its core objective is to guide the formulation of a Fiscal Policy that regulates the use of Artificial Intelligence in Brazil.

Proposal Objectives

Fund the establishment of an Artificial Intelligence research center in Brasília, within the framework of the Graduate School of Public Policy and Government.

The main mission of this research center will be to provide guidance for the creation of a specific Fiscal Policy for Artificial Intelligence in Brazil.
